

REVISED 10 CFR PART 35: MEDICAL USE OF BYPRODUCT MATERIAL

Subpart J: Reserved

Old Subpart J, “Training and Experience Requirements” was deleted. The revised training and experience requirements and are in new Subparts B and D through H

- Revised and moved old §35.900, [Training for] Radiation Safety Officer, to new §35.50
- Revised and moved old §35.901, Training for experienced Radiation Safety Officer, to new §35.57
- Revised and moved old §35.910, Training for uptake, dilution, and excretion studies, to new § 35.190
- Revised and moved old §35.920, Training for imaging and localization studies, to new §35.290
- Revised and moved old §35.930, Training for therapeutic of unsealed byproduct material, to new §35.390

- Revised and moved old §35.932, Training for treatment of hyperthyroidism, to new §35.392
- Revised and moved old §35.934, Training for treatment of thyroid carcinoma, to new §35.394
- Revised and moved old §35.940, Training for use of brachytherapy sources, to new §35.490
- Revised and moved old §35.941, Training for ophthalmic use of strontium-90, to new §35.491
- Revised and moved §35.950, Training for use of sealed sources for diagnosis, to new §35.590

- Revised and moved old §35.960, Training for teletherapy, to new §35.690
- Revised and moved old §35.961, Training for teletherapy physicist, to new §35.51
- Revised and moved old §35.970, Training for experienced authorized users, to new § 35.57
- Deleted old §35.971, Physicians training in a three-month program
 - ▶ Three-month nuclear medicine programs are no longer available
- Revised and moved old §35.972, Recentness of training, to new §35.59

- Revised and moved old §35.980, Training for an authorized nuclear pharmacist, to new §35.55
- Revised and moved old §35.981, Training for experienced nuclear pharmacists, to new §35.57